

Susanne Rentel

- Study in Law, University of Augsburg
- Study in Social Education, University of Applied Sciences, Munich
- Professional experiences in a legal working environment and two consultancies
- Leading experience as line supervisor
- Systematic consultant (Wiesloch, Institute for systematic consulting
- Additional apprenticeship in the analysis of transaction, trainings for HR- and organizational development
- Associated Partner of the Munich Leadership Group

Focus of consulting and training work

- Leadership development (programs, trainings, coaching)
- Designing and monitoring of change processes (change management consulting)
- Conflict moderation between employer and employee
- Designing and moderating of workshops and large groups
- Redirection of teams, team development
- Train-the-Trainer approach and trainings

My message

- “If you want to build a ship, then do not drum guys to supply wood, distribute tasks and divide work, but teach the guys the desire for the far, endless sea.”
- (Antoine de Saint-Exupéry)

E-mail: rentel@munichleadership.com